Raleigh Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Raleigh, N. C., August 19.—Misses Julia Cooper and Jessie Harris, of Durham, and Miss Douglas Hill, of Durham, were the honor guests of a delightful dance given Tuesday evening at the Raleigh Country Club by Gordon Smith and Chas. E. Johnson.

The merry party started from the Johnson home, on Hillsboro Street, at 7 o'clock in automobiles, and the dancing began at 8 o'clock. There was a service of punch and other refreshments during the evening. The evening proved most delightful, both as to the dancing and the charming opportunities for moonlight strolls about the splendid grounds and the lake. The chapters were Mrs. W. T. McGee, Mrs. Hill, of Durham; Miss Flora Creech, Colonel Chas. E. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Hillier and Mrs. Ed. Chambers Smith.

A congenial party of Raleigh people at Blowing Rock just now comprises Mrs. Albert Anderson, Miss Amelia Whitaker, Miss Alice Aycock, Miss Emmet Haywood, Dr. L. B. Lockhart, Clarence Poe, and C. Trenholm McGlenhugh.

Friends in North Carolina and Virginia will be interested in the announcement of the coming marriage of Miss Pattie Carroll, daughter of Walter Whichard, of Raleigh, to Walter Whichard, of Norfolk.

The marriage takes place in October.

Dr. Della Dixon Carroll has as her guest her niece, Miss May Thacker, of Norfolk.

Master Clarence Bryan Aycock, the three-year-old son of ex-Governor Bryan, will be entertained in the center of his friends at a birthday party Saturday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock.

After the children had romped through the younger set with a bridge party, were served with dainty refreshments. Next came an auto ride, then the little folks were taken home, all wishing Master Bryan "many happy returns."

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Asheville, N. C., August 19.—In a rather novel way, which proved a highly enjoyable surprise to her many guests, who declare her a charming hostess, Miss Myrtle Rollins entertained a number of the members of the Younger set with a bridge party Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Blanche Holt, of Chicago, S. C., and Miss Julia Wood, of Elizabeth City, each table was decorated with the colors of some nation, and was situated under a huge flag of some country, bunting having been used in profusion, carrying out the patriotic spirit of the party. The tally cards were decorated with the colors of many nations. Miss Rollins' guests were Miss Wood, Miss Holt, Miss Matt Haynes, Miss Edna Weaver, Miss Lillian Weaver, Miss Mabel Kelley, Miss Hortense Jones, Miss Ruth Brown, Miss Mary Farmer,

Miss Lucy Nichols, Miss Frances Dufford and Miss Mabel Stone and Richard Loughran, Thomas Varnon, Cassius Gudgeon, Paul Eve, Billie Borne, Russell Deal, Harold Guler, Albert Mustin, Robert Alford, Stanley Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wagner.

In honor of Mrs. William B. Troy, of Memphis, and Mrs. Charles H. Sumners, of Shreveport, La., Mrs. Charles Platt entertained at her home at Busbee Hall Friday afternoon. After the dinner was served, the friends of the couple were entertained at a dance on the veranda, which was tastefully decorated.

Miss Mary Moore Woodbridge entertained a number of friends Tuesday afternoon at her home on Montford Avenue. About thirty guests enjoyed the afternoon with Miss Woodbridge.
